

Can you guess the jobs?

Pre-task:

Have a look at the pictures below. Do you know how these jobs are called in English?
Can you think of other jobs?

Task 1:

Describe a job, but don't tell your partner which job you are describing. Your partner will try to guess it from your description. If he/she has guessed successful, it is his/her turn to describe a job.

In this job you have to...

In this job you are working with...

For this job you need...

This is a job in which you...

Task 2:

Your partner chooses a job, but doesn't tell you which job it is. Ask questions to find out which job your partner has chosen. You can ask a maximum of ten questions! Then, it is your turn to choose a job and your partner's turn to ask questions.

Suggestions for questions:

Do you deal with customers in this job?

Do you need a degree for this job?

Do you work in an office in this job?

Is it a dangerous job?
