

Politics

Task 1:

Tell your partner: Are you interested in politics? If yes, why? If no, why not?

Task 2:

Tell your partner how your country's political system is organised. Which political parties are there? Which interests do they represent? Which is the strongest party? In which rhythm do the elections take place? What is the name of the current head of state? (How) is s/he elected?

Task 3:

Compare the political system in your countries. What are the differences and similarities?

Task 4:

Which sources of information/media can you use to get political information? How do you get your political information yourself and how often do you inform yourself about political matters?

Task 5:

Send your partner a link to a newspaper that you read regularly. Then compare which political topics currently feature nationally in your countries.

Task 6:

Select a topic together. What is your opinion about this topic?
