Task 1:

Select a category together (e.g. music, film, literature, sport, etc.). Then select a famous person from your country (e.g. J. Wolfgang von Goethe, Sigmund Freud, Shakespeare, Mozart, Bach, Chopin, Angela Merkel, Barack Obama, Cristiano Ronaldo, etc.).

Describe this person as precisely as possible to your partner (man/woman, looks: height, figure (big, slim) hair colour, hair length, eye colour). Example: The person is a man. He is tall and slim. His hair is brown, etc.

Your partner shall guess (say, what s/he thinks): Which famous person are you describing?

Task 2:

Tell your partner: Why did you select this person? What do you like about this person?

Task 3:

Tell your partner: Which famous people (musicians, writers, actors, sports people, etc.) do you know from your partner's country? Write down the names of these people.

Task 4:

Select a person from this list. Your partner shall ask you yes/no questions about this person, e.g.: Is this person a woman/a man? Is the person a singer? Etc. Once your partner knows, which person you selected, you can ask him/her questions. Who is his famous person?

Task 5:

Tell your partner: Which music do you like listening to? Who is your favourite singer? Are there any bands/music styles you both like?

Task 6:

Which singer/band from your country do you like? Does your partner know this person? Tell one another: Which singers/bands from your country are famous?

Task 7:

Select a singer/band from your partner's country on YouTube. Listen to the song with the lyrics and tell your partner: what is the topic of the song? Do you like the song? If yes, why? If not, why not?
