Task 1:

Find a “Who is Who” board on the internet and share it with your partner. Choose a character from the board and write the name down on a piece of paper. Your partner will guess the mystery person by asking yes/no questions. Once the guess is right, switch roles.

Is it a woman? A man?

Is your mystery person wearing glasses/a hat/a cap/earrings?

Does she-he have short/long/curly/straight/light/dark hair?

Does he have a moustache/a beard?

Task 2:

Both of you choose a character from the board and take turns to ask each other questions to guess your partner's mystery person. Whoever guesses first wins the game.
